25 moscow mailbag for north american listeners: incl replies by joe adamov to (carlo patina) of toledo, ohio, on whether ussr is planning to land man on moon or any other planet in near future, adamov says says soviet plans for near future will be concentrated on near-earth space, on permanent orbital space stations with interhcnageable crews; in reply to question whether an ordinary citizen could own a gun for sporting purposes, adamov replied in the affirmative and explained permits and licences necessary: listener in san francisco asks if and why usa is setting deadline for successful conclusion of generva talks before trying to deploy new weapons, she is told that west has said all along that if talks do not succeed usa will start deploying cruise and pershing missiles; in reply to ltr from confirmed pacifists in new jersey, adamov expresses belief that human understanding and absence of hatred are not sufficient to halt unbridled arms race; listener in ohio asks what is primary soviet manned space flight vehicle used today and is given info on soyuz t series and its improved features compared with earlier craft, adamov also describe space stations at work in sapce; asked for his response to drug abuse and alcoholism, adamov says former is not a problem in ussr, whereas alcoholism is, and is being fought by every available means.
